DAYS 11 – 12: At Sea

Spend these days getting to know your luxury vessel – enjoy the ocean views and relax! (B,L,D)

DAY 13: Milford Sound, New Zealand & Fiordland National Park

Take advantage of your oceanside viewing of Milford Sound, one of New Zealand's premier natural attractions. Although it's called a sound, it's really a glacier carved fjord, with sheer mountain cliffs rising up on both sides. Waterfalls spill down the rocks – there can be hundreds after rains. Postcard-perfect Mitre Peak dominates the view if it's not covered in clouds. (B,L,D)

DAY 14: Port Chalmers (Dunedin), New Zealand

Dunedin is a University City with strong Scottish heritage. In 1848 Scottish settlers established a town there, bestowing upon it the ancient name of Edinburgh. Distinctly Scottish in feel with stone buildings and Victorian houses, Dunedin claims New Zealand's only castle – Larnach Castle, which overlooks Port Chalmers and the harbor. You'll also find many fine museums and galleries. (B,L,D)

DAY 15: Akaroa (Christchurch), New Zealand

Christchurch is a graceful city where gardens and architecture still reflect some of the culture and heritage of its European immigrants. Expansive parks lend Christchurch the nickname "The Garden City." The Avon River curves through the city and its parks, and you can drift along the river in a punt (a shallow-bottomed boat propelled by a long pole), enjoy a picnic lunch on its banks or just have a nice walk. (B,L,D)

DAY 16: Wellington, New Zealand

Perched on the edge of a spectacular harbour, encircled by green, towering hills, Wellington is a stunning and compact city. Vibrant, exciting and cultured, the nation's capital combines the stimulation and sophistication of a big city with the quirkiness of a charming village. Extending just two kilometres in diameter, Wellington is a truly "walking city." Here you'll find a unique blend of national treasures, arts and culture, gastronomic delights, shopping sensations and scenic beauty, making Wellington the ultimate urban destination in New Zealand. (B,L,D)

DAY 17: Napier, New Zealand

If you like art-deco, take a stroll around Napier, famous for its beautiful art-deco buildings. Or, visit the National Aquarium, one of the best in the Southern Hemisphere, housing turtles, seahorses, sharks and other fish, as well as rare tuatara lizards. There are a number of other tourist attractions, including a miniature village (Lilliput) and the Nocturnal Wildlife Centre. (B,L,D)

DAY 18: Tauranga (Rotorua), New Zealand

Rotorua sits on top of the most active geothermal region in the country. The boiling mud pots and geysers at the Whakarewarewa and Wai-OTapu thermal reserves are outstanding, and you can take mineral baths and marinate in mudpacks at one of the many spas in and around town. Rotorua's water organ (a fantastic water display with music), history museum and art gallery are worth a look. The city is also a key center of Maori culture: Attend a Maori hangi (feast and concert), take a village tour or visit the Maori Arts and Craft Institute, a replica of a traditional Maori village (with wood-carving and weaving demonstrations). (B,L,D)

DAY 19 – 20: Auckland, New Zealand

Auckland, New Zealand is the largest, most culturally diverse and cosmopolitan city. Its European, Pacific and Asian influences make it a destination unlike any other. The breathtaking geography will enthrall you. Sprawled across an isthmus, the city envelops more than 40 extinct volcanoes, several of which stand in green, pastoral parks overlooking a broad harbor, gulf islands and a seemingly endless shoreline. Today, enjoy an included guided highlight tour, with lunch and incredible views at the beautiful Sky Tower. (B,L,D)

DAY 21: Waitangi (Bay Of Islands), New Zealand

Historic sites – including the place where the most important treaty in New Zealand's history was signed – winemaking, golfing, sailing and scenic beauty all combine to make the Bay of Islands one of this South Pacific nation's most compelling regions. Located at the top of the North Island and comprising 144 islands between Cape Brett and the Purerua Peninsula, the Bay of Islands has abundant opportunities to explore. (B,L,D)

DAYS 22 – 23: AT SEA

With all the activity of the last week, you'll want a few days to just relax at sea. (B,L,D)

DAY 24: Sydney (Disembarkation)

All too soon, this amazing vacation comes to an end. Join the group transfer to the airport for your flight home. (B)
